GK's Message:

My brothers, in my reflections this weekend I came across a message from Pope Francis. Pope Francis said that we should use this time, not to focus on fasting so much as focusing on prayer and works of faith that prepare our souls to be able to be full of joy at Easter. Try not to focus so much on what you may have given up for Lent, but what you can do for others. How your actions of faith and love, regardless of size or nature, can impact the lives of others in a truly meaningful way. Take advantage of the Lenten Parish Mission. Help out or purchase a ticket to our council's Fish Fry this Friday. There are so many opportunities to live the Pope's message. May your Lenten journey be one of meaningful reflection and selfless action leading you to the full joy of Easter.

Vivat Jesus!!
